- For each of these numbers mark the correct letter on your answer sheet.

Paolo is good at speaking and understanding English, but he needs to do a full-time course to improve his writing and spelling before he starts a business course next year. He can come to England for one month in December or January.

This Spanish family would like to spend two or three weeks attending a part-time language course. The girls are nineteen and eighteen and know quite a lot of English. The parents know very little English.

Nikos is fourteen and his sister Anastasia is sixteen. Their parents would like them to spend a month on a language course where they can learn new hobbies and be looked after by their teachers.

Mehdi has just finished university and wants to spend some time touring round the world. He would like to do a course for a week or two before he starts his trip as he has never studied English.

Dorit is leaving school in June and will start a course to become a tour guide about four months later. Her English is good, but she must get a language qualification before she starts college.

KINGHALL ENGLISH COURSES—SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE!

A. Activity language learning

For teenagers up to age sixteen with any level of English. Fully-qualified staff and instructors make learning fun and safe. Spend two weeks or a month in small classes, improving your English while you paint, make music, play tennis, volleyball, etc., and take part in many other activities.

C. Family summer school

Classes at all levels for adults (over sixteen) and ten to fifteen-year-olds in the same building. Meet for meals and evening leisure activities. Accommodation in modern flats near the school. A full-day study timetable for one, two or three weeks.

E. Get around in English

This course is aimed at beginners who want to feel comfortable using English to buy tickets, book hotel rooms and make new friends. Although you will spend most of the course simply taking part in conversations, you will

B. Examination course 2

For students over sixteen, these courses last six months, and are part-time in the first three months, with a choice of afternoon leisure activities, changing to full-time for the second three months, with increased homework as the examination approaches.

D. Special skills courses

These one, two or three-month courses take place from January to March and are aimed at students who wish to improve particular language skills. Listening, writing, reading and speaking are all offered, together or separately. Students are not advised to take more than two skills in one month.

F. English for tourism

A six-month course for students with some knowledge of the language. The course covers areas such as ticket sales, making reservations and telephone work. Several trips to important English tourist centres are included. A very

Task 1

Once a philosopher travelled down a river in a small boat. While he 1(cross) the river he 2 (ask) the boatman: "You ever 3 (hear) about Philosophy?" "No," – 4 (say) the boatman. "I never 5 (hear) about it. "I 6 (be) sorry for you," replied the learned man, "you 7(lose) a quarter of your life as it's a very interesting science!" Several minutes later the Philosopher asked another question" "You 8 (hear) about Astronomy, when you were at school" "No, I 9 (leave) school many years ago and I 10 (forget) all about it", - was the answer. To this the Philosopher answered that he 11 (think) that the boatman 12 (lose) a second quarter of his life.

Some minutes passed and the passenger again wondered if the man 13 (hear) about Algebra. And the man 14 (have to) admit that he never 15(know) about it. "In this case you certainly 16 (lose) a third quarter of your life." – said the scientist.

At that very moment the boat 17 (strike) on a big stone. The boatman jumped and 18 (cry): "You ever 19(learn) to swim?" "No," – was the answer. The boatman explained sadly that he was sure that he 20(lose) his whole life as the boat was sinking.

Task 2*Tornadoes

Tornadoes are storms with very A____ turning winds and dark clouds. These winds are perhaps the strongest on B____. They reach speeds of 300 miles per hour. The dark clouds are shaped like a funnel — wide at the top and narrow at the bottom. The winds are strongest in C____ centre of the funnel. Tornadoes are especially common in the United States, but only in certain parts. They occur mainly in the D____ states.

A hot afternoon in the spring is the most likely time for a tornado. E____ become dark. There is thunder, lightning and rain. A cloud forms a funnel and begins to twist. The funnel moves faster and faster. The faster the winds, the louder the noise. Tornadoes always move in a northeastern direction. They never last longer than eight hours.
